Auburn recently defeated Floridans by a large score, while all the Georgia Tech could do was to win, 13 to 3. While Georgia Tech was having its hard battle with Florida, Auburn was redling a score of 34 to 9 against Mississippi A and M. a team always regarded as a strong contender for Southern tootball honors. While much of the scoring in yeaterday's games was the direct result of cleveric Caccutted forward passes, it was significant that the majority of the winning teams depended for their best ground gaining on "straight football," with a few trick formations. As a result, the element of luck was not a deciding factor in the more important contests.

Vanderbilt's paor showing against increase apparently outchased the bin moderes in every department, and certificate that the clement of luck was not a deciding factor in the more important contests.

Next Saturday should witness a number of battless of even greater interest than those played eyesterday. TWIRLING KINGS TO MEET IN FIRST DUEL TO-DAY

Christy Mathewson, the veteran master of the twirling staff of the New York Giants, and considered the king of National League twirlers, and Wulter Johnson, the speed ball king of the Washington team and of all the American League clubs, will face each other in a pitching duci for the first time to-day. This great contest, which would be certain to pack more than 40,000 fans into the Polo Grounds in New York, is to be staged at Joplin, Mon. when the New York Giants and the missit Chiengo White Sox team reach there on their trip around the world. Johnson has been signed to pitch for the White Sox in this game, and Manager McGraw has promised to send the great Mutty against him.

Down St. Andrew's Eleven in Fast and Snappy Game by Touchdowns.

The Scholastics won a hard-fought football game from the strong St. Andrew's Park Saturday. Superior work in every department won for the Scholastics by the score of 6 to 0. The stars of the game were, for the Scholastics, Lacy, Mackey and Dennis, while for St. Andrew's Rasticking was a feature. A forward pass to Heineil worked to the extent of a touchdown, which was the only one of the game. Mackey, for Scholastics, plunged through the St. Andrew's line for fifteen and twenty-yard gains. It seemed that nothing could stop him. The forward pass by Lacy to Heineil, who ran thirty-five yards for a touchdown, was the prettiest play of the game.

Forty-Six of Those Saved From the Volturno Arrive on the Carmania.

New York, October 26.—There was an echo here to-day of the recent disaster to the steamer Volturno, when forty-six survivors of the ill-fated vessel were brought into port by the steamer Carmania. They were rescued by the steamer Devonian and taken to Liverpool, where they were transferred to the Carmania.

LEVY STILL LIVES BY FORCE OF WILL

Victim of Bichloride of Mercury Poison Breaks All Medical Records.

IN CONTROL OF FACULTIES

Smiles Wearily, and Clings to Wife When Pain Is Most Severe.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, October 26.-Isaac Levy, the wealthy clothing manufacturer of Bensonhurst, who eight days ago accidentally swallowed thirty grains of bichloride of mercury, has broken all medical records by being alive to-day. He is still determined to live, although unable longer to talk distinctly.

The longest period of living after swallowing the deadly drug was in the case of B. Saunders Walker, the Macon, Ga., banker, who on May 15 last accidentally took a seven and a half grain tablet of bichloride. After a heroic battle for life, he succumbed as the seventh day was approaching. In the case of Mr. Lovy, eight days ago he took thirty grains, and when the error was discovered his doctors declared that death was inevitable within a very few days at the longest. At 8 o'clock to-pight Dr. Jacob Sarnoff, in attendance upon the stricken man, issued the following bulletin:

"The patient is still living, and the end is not immediately in sight. This is due to determination and will power almost entirely. Temperature has commenced to diminish and is now 95; pulse 80, and respiration increased to 24." con, Ga., banker, who on May 15 last Several times to-day it was thought that Mr. Levy was sinking into come, but he rallied and fought for conscious-but he rallied and fought for consciousness and won.

During the day the vital organs of his throat began to swell and thus he was unable to talk distinctly, although in perfect control of his faculties. Portions of the roof of the mouth broke and added to his discomfiture, but when the pain was most severe he smiled wearily and clung to the hand of his wife, who for eight days has remained at his bedside, eating and sleeping little.
